

Third Ice Analysts Workshop

14 – 18 June 2011

Danish Meteorological Institute, Copenhagen, Denmark

INFORMATION FOR PARTICIPANTS

Meeting Venues

The Third Ice Analysts Workshop will take place at the Danish Meteorological Institute, DMI, in Copenhagen. The workshop will start at 09:00, Tuesday, 14 June at the DMI main meeting room. DMI is situated in the north eastern part of Copenhagen and has the S-railway station "Ryparken" next to its premises, Lyngbyvej 100.

Hotels

Single rooms have been pre-booked at 3 hotels. You need to book your room yourself with a booking number that Lisbeth Palle, DMI, +45 39 15 72 20, lap@dm.dk, will give you, when you register for the Workshop with Lisbeth. Please beware of the dead-lines for booking under each hotel.

Airport and how to go to DMI

A ride with a taxi from Copenhagen Airport will take 30 minutes or more, if it is during rush hours. The price is about DDK 200,-.

At the Copenhagen Airport there are two different train connections going to Copenhagen. The Metro M2 with frequent departures, and an ordinary train at each 15 minutes. Both train connections are accessed at the far end in the arrival terminal (Terminal 3). The Metro is found one level up, and the ordinary train one level down. We advise using the Metro M2. Choose the direction "Vanløse" and get off at the station "Nørreport". Walk up the stairs, and Choose the S-train with route "A" and the direction "Farum". From the Airport to "Ryparken" travel time is 32 minutes.

Visas

Visitors to Denmark from the Schengen area and many other countries do not require a visa, but just a national, valid passport. To see whether you need a visa and look for visa requirements and applications, please see:

Money

The Danish currency is the Danish Krone (DKK), which is divided into 100 'øre'. Ultimo March 2011:

1 DKK = 0,19 US Dollars

1 DKK = 0,13 Euro

Copenhagen

The capital of Denmark has 1,7 million inhabitants excluding the Little Mermaid, sculptured after the fairy tale by Hans Christian Andersen. Copenhagen dates back to the 800th century. "Copenhagen is full of zest and life. Experience a pulsating metropolitan capital with a harbour clean enough to bathe in. Discover a historical oasis that is constantly moving with the times. Come and find a fascinating city full of contrast and surprise" says www.visitcopenhagen.com.

Climate

June can be cold – 15 ° Celsius - and rainy as well as a lovely summer time in Copenhagen. The weekly weather forecast for Copenhagen is brought to you by DMI:

How to walk from the S-station "Ryparken" to DMI

Leave the station at the entrance to the left, coming down the stairs.

10 steps to the left, you will find an iron staircase. At the top, follow the path along the lawn, directly to the DMI main entrance and reception, where you will be welcomed.

Ticket system for the Metro, the S-train and the city busses

Ticket cards can be bought from a vending machine. You can use Eurocard, MasterCard, Diners Card, American Express Card and Visa Card. The same ticket card is valid for the Metro, the S-train and city busses. All rides are divided into zones. We recommend to buy a Blue ticket card for DKK 140,00. It is valid for 2 zones. Before entering trains and busses, you must punch your ticket card. Going to Ryparken from Copenhagen Airport involves 4 zones. With a Blue card you need to punch the card twice! Passengers are randomly controlled, and travelling without correct punching costs DKK 600,-.

Taxis

If you need a taxi leaving DMI, Lisbeth Palle can help you. If you want to call for one yourself, choose 3251 5151 or 3535 3535. Prices include tips, as they do in restaurants.
